It's Official: We are ABWE appointed missionaries!

In March, Matt and I spent a week in Harrisburg, PA at the ABWE Headquarters for Candidate Seminar. On March 14, we received a board appointment and are now officially ABWE missionaries in their Project Office. You can read about our journey to this point and more about the Project Office on our website, brownsbeyondborders.org.

major Bible eras, from Genesis through Revelation.

I learned so much and passed my first comprehensive test with flying colors! I have 2 more quizzes to take, one at 30 days out and one at 60 days out, and I also need to read the New Testament chronologically to receive full credit for this pre-field requirement. Praying for diligence.

We were able to give our first large group presentation at our home church, Cornerstone Baptist Church, on June 19. I (Sarah) left later that afternoon to attend The Roots of Faith New Testament class in Harrisburg. The class was very interactive and even though it was from 8-5 every day, the time flew by.

The Roots of Faith—Old Testament and The Roots of Faith—New Testament is a chronological Bible survey of God's redemptive plan, consisting of two courses. Altogether these courses include lessons that feature 100 key Bible events in 25

That same week I was gone, Rylie was at Point Guard College (thank you grandma and grandpa for taking her) and Isaac was on a fly-in fishing trip with my dad in Canada. You can read about his trip and see a few pictures on the MK Blog page on our website. Matt and Avery made it through the week at home, taking care of our "farm", 4H chickens, new chicks, and pigs.

Coming up: Prayer Requests

Matt and I head to ABWE for a Recognition Ceremony and Good Soil Evangelism and Discipleship Training this month, 7/15-17.

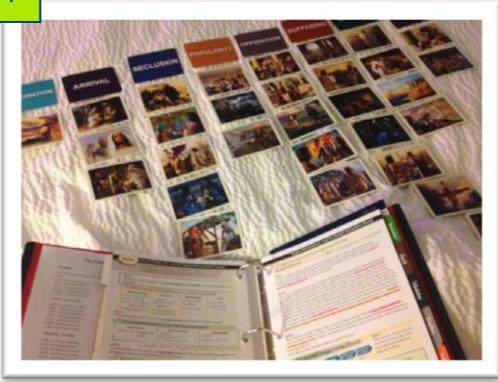

Rylie and Isaac will be attending Scioto Hills Christian Camp this month, as well.

We are working on getting packets out to churches so that we can begin presenting to acquire ministry partnerships. Please pray for open doors and open hearts.

We are praising God for the opportunity to share this "hotel on wheels" with my parents for our ministry travels. Looking forward to the adventures!!

By the grace God has given me, I laid a foundation as a wise builder, and someone else is building on it. But each one should build with care. For no one can lay any foundation other than the one already laid, which is JESUS CHRIST
