Praises and Prayer Requests:

We have so much to be thankful for! Matt and I were in Normal, IL for an ABWE One Day Mission Experience on 9/11-13 when Avery called us at 2:30 am on the 13th telling us that Rylie was being transferred to OSU to deliver the baby. What a call to wake up to! See our family update below & then come back for the prayer requests. 😊 Please continue to pray for Rylie and Lance as they adjust to life with a newborn. Pray that Rylie's blood pressure "normalizes" so that she can come off the BP meds she has been taking since 9/13. Rowan struggled with jaundice & high bilirubin levels. Those have come down but pray they stay down and that she continues to eat and gain weight like a champ!

We are praising God for a new church partnership and a new individual supporter since our last update!

We are currently at 77% supported.

Matt and I will be in Nicaragua for 3 weeks in February and are looking to host teams for two weeks (2/13-27).

Juggling:

Matt has said a few times that he is juggling many projects and initiatives, which keeps things fresh & exciting!

While juggling his to do list, Matt also reminded us that he actually learned to juggle in college. Want to see if he still has it?!?!

Click HERE to find out and to read about all the projects he is currently juggling.

Caption for photo above:

I came home from work one day & this is what I walked into... blueprints, tools, pictures, and more spread all over the family room. He does have an office upstairs, which is where I like this type of work to stay. 😊

He commented: "I thought you were going to be gone longer than that." I guess that's something else we're juggling. 😊

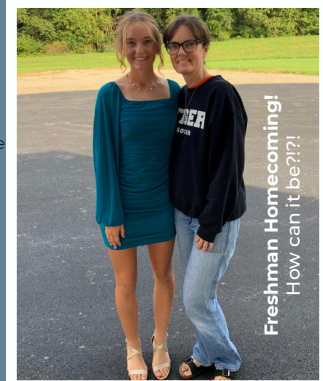

Family/ Life Update:

WE ARE GRANDPARENTS!! Gammy & Pop!! And Avery is a very proud Auntie! Baby Rowan Elisabeth arrived 4 weeks early in a very dramatic & chaotic fashion as Rylie developed preeclampsia in the days leading up to 9/13. By about 8:55pm on the 13th, Rylie and Lance were being rushed out of the labor & delivery room for an emergency C-section and we were left in the waiting room...waiting & waiting. What we didn't know from where we were sitting was how God was intervening!

We had been praying as a group & individually. People ALL OVER were praying for this little family and the medical team! But after an hour and a ½ with no update, it was very hard to not let our minds think the worst. BUT GOD! Rylie had delivered Baby Rowan naturally in the operating room at 9:04!!! It's an AMAZING story!

Less than a week later, we were in a waiting room in Cleveland as we waited for my dad to come out of his quadruple bypass. So thankful this surgery date opened up in Cleveland & that he is home & recovering. It has been a season of activity restrictions & waiting since June!

Freshman Homecoming!
How can it be?!?!
